crowd Pursued and Caught Him in the Yard of a Private House.

Roundsman O'Connor and Special Officer Gehrhardt had a lively chase in williamsburg at noon to-day after a highwaymen. Charles Peterson, an old man, who was standing at the corner of Driggs avenue and Broadway, foolishly showed a roll of bills amounting to $80. Henry Moore, forty-nine years old, who says he is a cook and lives at 18 West Thirty-sixth street, this city, asw the money. He asked Peterson to give him a quarter, but the old man refused, and shoved the bills in his pocket.

Moore then knocked Peterson down, and started to go through his pockets. He found the roll of bills, and as he did so H. B. Gehrhardt, a special policeman, grabbed him.

Moore got away, but dropped the bills and ran down Driggs avenue, followed and ran down Driggs avenue, followed and ran down Driggs avenue, followed the control of the private in an English infantry regiment.

His appointment is also said to be a violation of Civil Service rules, inasmuch as he is fifty years of age.

Clancy sappointment has given special offense to a section of Irish Nationalists and to Alderman Joseph Cassidy, of the Second Ward. Previous to his appointment, the nuw policeman was employed as a grave-d'gger in Calvary Cemetery, and took sides with the Kavanagh Democracy against Cassidy, at the last election.

The Irish opposition to Clancy's appointment on the police force, is based on the fact that he served a number of years as a private in an English infantry regiment.

His appointment is also said to be a violation of Civil Service rules, inasmuch as he is fifty years of age.

Clancy appointment has given special offense to a section of Irish Nationalists and the Alderman Joseph Cassidy, of the Second Ward. Moore got away, but dropped the bills and ran down Driggs avenue, followed by a yelling crowd. He tursed into South Eighth street and went east.

The basement door of the house No. 163 was open and Moore dashed in there, while haif a dozen men clattered along in pursuit, greatly to the astonishment of a woman who was sitting in the dining-room and who was frightened nearly into hysterics.

Moore ran through the yard, and garted to climb the fence, but the policeman caught him by the leg and pulled him back.

There was a lively fight, but Moore was finally subdued and locked up in the Clymer street station. The $50 was recovered and restored to Petergon.
